

from the time of his enlistment until about two weeks before the Army was disbanded in the year 1837 as above stated.

Deponent further says, that about two weeks before the Army was disbanded as aforesaid and before his term of service had expired, he received an honorable discharge from the service, in consequence of ill health which had rendered him unfit for duty for the remaining few days of the term of his enlistment, which was for the period of nine months. That if the Public Archives of the Republic of Texas have been preserved, the name of this deponent will, <sup>or should</sup> appear on the pay rolls, muster rolls and in the records of the Office of the Secretary of War for the years 1836 and 1837.

Deponent therefore begs leave to refer the Hon<sup>ble</sup> A. T. Hood, Comptroller as aforesaid, to the Public Archives of the Republic of Texas, and to the affidavits hereto annexed, for further evidence of the facts set forth in the foregoing affidavit.

And this deponent respectfully requests said Comptroller to cause a Pension Certificate to issue to this deponent in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, entitled, "An Act granting Pensions to the surviving veterans of the Revolution which separated Texas from Mexico," Approved August 13th 1870.
